My name is Gena Mayo. I am an experienced blogger with over 13 years experience. I post weekly and interact on social media daily. I have 8 children, ranging in age from 6-18 and have homeschooled them all from the beginning.

Thanks for considering a partnership with I Choose Joy!

My niche is mostly Christian homeschooling moms. I love to post on what we're doing in my big and busy homeschooling family.

My specialty is music teaching and creating lesson plans and full online courses. (I have another website dedicated to music in the homeschool at MusicinOurHomeschool.com. and an online school at Learn.MusicinOurHomeschool.com)

At I Choose Joy! I write about favorite homeschooling materials, tutorials for making recipes and crafts, and great field trip ideas including our popular yearly road trips. I also post book, curriculum, and/or product reviews, some with giveaways.
